VAST MARSHLANDS WITH MOST SOUGHT AFTER SPECIES

Sinalopato Duck & Dove Club, operates a large marshland system in the Nort Region of Sinaloa State. We have more than one hundred blinds. The blinds are built with wood platforms, so the hunter stays dry. All blinds have decoys. to operate this 120,000 acres system of marshland we have seven air boats. Vast marshlands, as far as the eyes can see, are perfect habitat for a variety of ducks, many of wich are scarce in the United states including black-bellied whistling ducks, readheads, cinnamon, green winged & blue winged teal, gadwalls, canvasbacks, fulvous whistling ducks, ruddy duck, mottled ducks, widgeons, pintails, shovelers, pacific black brand, scaup and mallards. Also White Winged and Mourning Dove, Pigeon, Douglas "Elegante" And Gamble Quail.

OCTOBER 28TH UNTIL MARCH 20TH

LATE MODEL GUNS AND THE MOST ADVANCED EQUIPMENT

Sinalopato has 48 Shotguns available in the 12 or 20 gauge. We have bennelli automatic, Super Black Eagles, Beretta 391 autos and Remington 870 pump guns or you can bring your own. We have a gusmith and a state of the arts gunroom. Our infrastructure is second to none. We have 7 new and refurbished Airboats for a once in a lifetime marshland hunting experience. Every morning you will be shuttled to your hunting destination in one of our new air conditioned vans.

"Great experience. I saw more Duck Species in greater numbers than any other similar hunt, The dove hunts were also highly successful, The facilities, service and food were enjoyed by all members of our group" Saludos!

A photograph of two hunters, a man and a woman, posing with their rifles behind a large pile of harvested quail in a desert setting. The man on the left is wearing a camouflage shirt and a cap, while the woman on the right is wearing a patterned jacket and a cap. They are both smiling and holding their rifles. The pile of quail is in the foreground, and the desert landscape is in the background.

COPPER CANYON

If you would like to compliment your hunting trip with another out of this world experiences, may we suggest a majestic train ride to Copper Canyon. Tour the Canyon and stay at the sophisticated Balderrama Hotels. Visit one the most enchanting regions in Mexico, where fine hospitality and service are premium.

If you are looking for a cast and blast program, you have come to the right place. Lake Huites was stocked in 1994 with Florida strain Black Bass and the fish have grown at phenomenal rates. This growth explosion is due to the warm year round growing season, the clear pure mountain water and the tremendous food base. Please allow us to arrange for the bass fishing trip of a life time.

"I have been hunting at Sinalopato Duck & Dove Club now for over 20 years. I have hunted all over the world and find no better hospitality. The hunting is always fantastic, the accommodations outstanding and the food superb. I look forward to returning with my friends again this year as well as many more years to come".
